

The most loved holiday classic ever!

A Christmas Carol

Written by Charles Dickens
Adapted by Bob Doherty

November 20-23, 2019 | Imperial Theatre | Directed by Dean Turner
Single tickets: $49.50 adult / $40 matinee or senior / $10 student / preview night $38.50

Embrace in the carols, dances, beggars and businessmen as the ghosts of Christmas Past, Present and Future lead Ebenezer Scrooge on an amazing journey of self-awareness. A timeless tale of reflection, redemption and the spirit of the holiday season.

"The funny, touching and irresistible story of a working relationship that became a 25 year friendship"

Driving Miss Daisy

By Alfred Uhry
Featuring Walter Borden

March 25-28, 2020 | Imperial Theatre | Directed by Stephen Tobias
Single tickets: $42.50 adult / $35.50 matinee or senior / $10 student / preview night $34.00

In the midst of the Civil Rights Movement, an unlikely friendship develops between an elderly Jewish widow and her African American chauffeur. A warm-hearted story with a message that friendship and caring can surmount creed, colour and race.

A supercalifragilisticexpialidocious musical adventure!
Disney and Cameron Mackintosh's

Mary Poppins

A Musical based on the stories of P.L. Travers and the Walt Disney Film

May 20-23, 2020 | Imperial Theatre | Directed by Jennifer Mabey
Single tickets: $55.00 adult / $45.50 matinee or senior / $15 student / preview night $44.00

Everyone's favorite practically perfect nanny arrives at the Banks household just in time to set things straight. Using magic, common sense and a song or two Mary Poppins has many magical and memorable adventures up her sleeve.

Three show subscriptions: Adult $98 | Senior $88 | Matinee $88 | Student $30

Subscriptions on sale May 15th. Single Main Stage show tickets on sale
September 6th. Imperial Theatre box office: 1-800-323-7469 or 506-674-4100.