A Few Good Lawyers

Local lawyers star in a selection of short courtroom scenes from famous legal themed productions in support of Saint John Theatre Company

SAINT JOHN - On April 24th the Imperial Theatre stage will be filled with many of the City's top legal professionals. Twenty local lawyers will be participating in a selection of famous legal themed productions, including: Chicago, A Few Good Men, Inherit The Wind, Monty Python, My Cousin Vinny, and To Kill A Mockingbird.

After a wildly successful fundraiser in 2010 with the production of 12 Angry Lawyers, many cast members will be returning to the Imperial stage to take part. Rehearsals have been ongoing for the past few weeks; working around the busy schedules of the lawyers involved. Cast members are excited about the chance to be involved in a unique event that supports a great cause and gives them a chance to try something new.

The evening will be hosted by Mayor Mel Norton LLB (Lawson Creamer). Cast members include: Lee Bell-Smith LLB (Stewart McKelvey), Scott A. Brittain LLB, LLM (Solicitor, City Solicitor's Office), Bruce Grant LLB (Canty Lutz Delaquis Grant), Mike Blackier JD (Stewart McKelvey), Matthew Letson LLB (Lawson Creamer), Alicia Love LLB (JD Irving Ltd), David Lutz QC. (Lutz Longstaff Parish), Jasmine Buchanan JD (New Brunswick Legal Aid Services Commission), Cathy Fawcett LLB (Lawson & Creamer), Mitchell Fraser LLB (Brenton Kean), Jill M. Knee LLB (Public Prosecutions), Scott Larson LLB (Larson Rodgers), Christopher J. Marr LLB (Stewart McKelvey), Jon O'Kane JD (Stewart McKelvey), Chelsea L. Seale JD (Gorman Nason), Bertis Sutton LLB, Janet Steeves LLB, Kelly VanBuskirk LLB (Lawson & Creamer), and Terry Hutchinson QC (McInnis Cooper).

"It's going to be a lot of fun," says Stephen Tobias, Artistic Director for Saint John Theatre Company. "The lawyers we have involved are really working hard to create a great evening of entertainment."

The performance will be staged for one night only at Imperial Theatre on Thursday, April 24th at 7:30pm. Single tickets are $45. A VIP pass to the event is $100 which includes a tax receipt for $55, a ticket to the performance, plus a post-show reception on stage at Imperial Theatre following the show. For tickets call Imperial Theatre box office at 506-674-4100.
