A Gale Of A Tale

Local Talent Pays Tribute to the Ground Hog Gale in an evening of music, poetry & photography

SAINT JOHN – next up in the SJTC Live @ The BMO Music Series is a special anniversary tribute titled A Gale of A Tale. A brilliant team of local talent has collaborated to create a past and present picture of Saint John on the anniversary of the notorious Ground Hog Day Gale. The show will take place at BMO Studio Theatre on Friday, February 2.

A Gale of A Tale is a multi-media performance embracing the skills of three local celebrities who are well known as masters in their craft: local musician and storyteller Brent Mason, poet and playwright Clyde A. Wray and professional photographer Dan Culberson have collaborated to create an evening of music, imagery, poetry and song showcasing the city on the anniversary of the severe coastal storm that caused widespread destruction back in 1976.

"We're all really excited about this show, partly because we've never worked together and party because we have no idea how it's all gonna roll out," adds Brent Mason. "To use word, image and song all wrapped up in a Saint John burrito makes for a tasty and possibly tasteful night! It'll be just like Groundhog Day!"

A Gale of A Tale is a one night only event at the BMO Studio Theatre at 112 Princess Street. The show begins at 8pm. Tickets are $20 and can be purchased online at www.ticketpro.ca or by calling 1-888-311-9090.

Funding for the Live @ The BMO Music Series has been generously provided by Canadian Heritage, the Province of New Brunswick and BMO Financial.
