Leapin' Lizards! Annie Auditions Coming This June!

Attention all aspiring actresses now is your chance to audition for a role in SJTC's upcoming production of Annie at Imperial Theatre this November!

SAINT JOHN – Saint John Theatre Company is excited to hold auditions for its Main Stage season opener Annie which will be performed at Imperial Theatre November 14-16, 2013.

Open auditions will be held for the role of Annie as well as the orphans on Tuesday June 11 and Thursday June 13 at 7pm at 112 Princess Street. Young girls who look like a pre-teen (ages 6-13 years) are encouraged to attend one of these audition sessions. "I'm looking for a girl who can appear to be eleven years old and who can not only sing, dance and act but also have that "special something" that will win the hearts of the audience," adds Director Bob Doherty.

Auditions for the remaining roles in the play will be held for adults and teens on Wednesday June 19 and Thursday June 20 at 7pm at 112 Princess Street. Those auditioning will be required to sing. More information about song selections and the audition process can be found at: www.saintjohntheatrecompany.com/auditions.

The Tony Award winning musical has entertained audiences for over three decades; featuring some of Broadway's most memorable songs including "It's A Hard Knock Life" and "Tomorrow".

Annie will be staged at Imperial Theatre November 14-16, 2013. Rehearsals for the fall production will begin in late August.
