

A special commemorative NB tour to mark the Centenary of World War I
Presented by Live Bait Theatre & Saint John Theatre Company

Billy Bishop Goes to War

Written and composed by John MacLachlan Gray in collaboration with Eric Peterson
Directed by Charlie Rhindress. Featuring Ron Kelly Spurles.

The award-winning story of Canadian World War I flying ace Billy Bishop.
One of the most successful and endearing musical dramas in history.

"Billy Bishop is a high-flying ace of a show, capturing the humour, the hellfire and the derring-do of an extraordinary career..." New York Times

Tickets are $22.50, $15 student.

To purchase please visit www.ticketpro.ca or call 1-888-311-9090.

Billy Bishop Goes to War tour dates and locations:

Oct 11 | STU Black Box Theatre, 51 Dineen Dr, Fredericton | 7:30pm

Oct 17 & 18 | Royal Canadian Legion, Sackville, 15 Lorne St, Sackville | 7:30pm

Oct 24 | Théâtre l'Escaouette, 170 Botsford Street, Moncton | 7:30pm*

Oct 26 & 27 | BMO Studio Theatre, 112 Princess St, Saint John | 7:30pm

Nov 14 | W.C. O'Neill Arena Complex, 24 Reed St, Saint Andrews | 7:30pm

Nov 16 | Sussex Regional High School, 55 Leonard Dr, Sussex | 7:30pm

*Tickets for the Moncton performance are available through the théâtre l'Escaouette box office at <http://escaouette.com/upcoming-events/> or by calling (506) 855-0001 – ext:207

All other locations are on sale through ticketpro.ca