SAINT JOHN – Fasten your seatbelts! The Saint John Theatre Company has arrived at its final Main Stage destination for the 2016-2017 Season!

The non-stop, mile-a-minute comedy Boeing Boeing will be staged at Imperial Theatre May 24-27.

“Boeing Boeing is an amazing comedy about a character, Bernard, who thinks he can control time. He maintains three different relationships by managing the intricate flight schedules of his three fiancés. When the scheduling fails and all three fiancés arrive at his Paris apartment at once, his scramble to maintain control leads to a frantic comic climax. It is the kind of character driven comedy that I like,” adds Stephen Tobias, Director. “It is populated by amazing, three dimensional characters, each with their own story to tell. It is in the clash of these stories that the comedy comes to life. It will be a great challenge for actors and a great play for audiences to sit back and enjoy!”

The SJTC would like to thank Season Patron BMO Financial Group, Main Stage Series Sponsor Canaport LNG, the Province of New Brunswick, Education & Community Outreach partner TD, Boeing Boeing Production Partner The Saint John Airport, New System Laundry and the Pannell Family Foundation for their ongoing support of local theatre.
