

THE FUNDY FRINGE FESTIVAL

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 28, 2014

Volunteer Support Vital To Success of Fundy FRINGE Festival

Volunteers needed to pull off 75 shows in 5 venues over 5 days in Port City this August

SAINT JOHN – the second annual Fundy FRINGE Festival will take over uptown Saint John August 20-24. Boasting over 75 performances by theatrical talent from across the country; the Fundy FRINGE will take place in 5 performance spaces, including the New Brunswick Museum, the Saint John Arts Centre, the Sanctuary Theatre, Happinez Wine Bar and the host venue at 112 Princess Street, home of the Saint John Theatre Company.

Volunteer support is needed to assist with ticket sales in each venue, communicate festival guidelines to the public, promote the festival via social media, work on the technical side of things in each venue, lead a team of volunteers, or offer support to other volunteers. For more information on the many volunteer positions needed please visit: www.fundyfringefestival.com or e-mail fundyfringevolunteer@gmail.com.

“The Fundy FRINGE Festival could not function without its volunteers. They are the backbone of the festival, be it running the tech for shows, greeting audience at the box office, or even hosting a travelling artist! Fundy FRINGE Festival loves its volunteers,” adds Sarah Rankin, Fundy FRINGE Coordinator.

FRINGE theatre is designed to be both democratic and accessible theatre in the world. This year’s festival includes comedy, drama, and performance art. Each festival follows a series of basic guidelines which includes low admission prices, selection of participants by lottery, no censorship, shorter performances, and 100% of the ticket revenue going to the performing companies.
