

For Immediate Release
May 23, 2016

Powerful Award Winning Play Inspired by the disaster in Lac Mégantic
Coming to BMO Studio Theatre, May 27-28.

Lac/Athabasca

A cross Canada journey, written in ice, water, and fire.

A Theatre Free Radical Production written by Len Falkenstein

SAINT JOHN- Inspired by the train derailment disaster that devastated the town of Lac-Mégantic, Quebec in 2013 and by the ongoing debates over the environmental and social impact of the Alberta oil sands and the transportation of oil in Canada, Lac/Athabasca takes audiences on a cross-Canada journey that begins in the Rocky Mountains and ends in a small town in northern New Brunswick.

Official selection, 2015 Summer Works Theatre Festival (Toronto)

Winner of the Dorothy White Award

BMO Studio Theatre, May 27-28, tickets
$22.50 / students $15.00

For tickets visit: www.ticketpro.ca or call 1-888-311-9090.

At the BMO Studio Theatre, 112 Princess St on May 27 and 28
Visit the Lac/Athabasca event page on Facebook.