LUNGS

A lifetime of love amidst global anxiety. A powerful play by Duncan Macmillan.

SAINT JOHN – The Saint John Theatre Company is pleased to present LUNGS, a captivating love story set in a world of uncertainty. LUNGS will be staged at the BMO Studio Theatre February 22-24.

Produced worldwide, LUNGS is a smart and funny drama that follows a couple through the surprising lifecycle of their relationship as they grapple with questions of family, change, hope, and betrayal. The play is written by award-winning British playwright Duncan Macmillan, known for tackling modern-day social issues in his works.

Presented by Murmuration Theatre Collective, LUNGS is part of the SJTC Canadian Stages Series which hosts professional grade works from across the country. The play is directed by Lindsay Bell, featuring Emily Bartlett and Alex Goldrich, professional actors raised in the greater Saint John area.

Working on the script has been the most challenging and satisfying work I can remember. It is both thrilling and terrifying the amount of concentration it requires," adds Emily Bartlett. "I am beyond thrilled to share this challenging, funny, moving play in the city where my love of theatre began!"

LUNGS will be staged at BMO Studio Theatre located at 112 Princess Street, February 22-24. Tickets are $22.50 for adults and $15 for students. To order please call 1-888-311-9090 or visit www.ticketpro.ca.
