A Honky-Tonk Sock-Hop Drowning Its Sorrows In Rolling-Rock

Penny Blacks to Play at BMO Studio Theatre November 5

SAINT JOHN – The 2016-2017 SJTC Live @ The BMO Music Series is in full swing. Next up in the eight part music series is the Penny Blacks, a Saint John original with a distinct sound that draws its influence from folk-rock, country and punk. "We are best described as a honky-tonk sock-hop drowning its sorrows in rolling-rock," adds band member Jason Ogden.

Fresh off a Canadian tour, the band will perform in the BMO Studio Theatre on Saturday, November 5. Band members include Jason Ogden, Adam Kierstead, Chris Braydon, Ali Leonard and Clinton Charlton.

Described as "stunning" by Maverick UK and as "alternative folk in an alternative universe" by Ride The Tempo, Penny Blacks have taken the country by storm. The busy band has also showcased at CMW and The ECMA's, been CBC Searchlight and Galaxie Rising Star finalists and recipients of the RBC Emerging Artist Award.

Funding for the Live @ The BMO Music Series has been provided by Canadian Heritage, the Province of New Brunswick and BMO Financial. Tickets are $15 and can be purchased by calling 1-888-311-9090 or visiting www.ticketpro.ca.
