Lucky Ticket Holder Wins A $10,000 Dream Vacation

The Make Your Escape Dream Vacation Raffle in support of Saint John Theatre Company was a Success!

SAINT JOHN – The Make Your Escape Dream Vacation raffle in support of the Saint John Theatre Company was a success! Bertis Sutton a long-time theatre company volunteer and local teacher was crowned the winner after his ticket was drawn. The draw took place following an intimate evening performance of The Debacle held at the company's home on 112 Princess Street on June 16, 2012.

Thanks to the generous support of CAA Travel, Saint John Theatre Company was able to offer a lucrative prize which drew a lot of interest.

Proceeds from the raffle will be used to support general operations of the facility and also assist in managing its deficit.

When asked where he planned to go Bertis mentioned Australia as one of several possible destinations.

Saint John Theatre Company was established over 20 years ago and has grown into a premier provider of English-language theatre in New Brunswick. The company strives to produce quality live entertainment and training for audiences and theatre practitioners throughout southern New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Maine.
