

PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 21, 2019

Contact: Lise Driscoll, Marketing & Communications, SJTC
506-652-7582 ext. 226 / lise.driscoll@saintjohntheatrecompany.com

Talent from Near & Far

Two talented musicians round out the month of March as part of the Live @ The BMO Music Series

SAINT JOHN – the Live @ The BMO Music Series is in full swing. Later this month two very talented and musicians will take the stage offering audiences a unique and entertaining evening of live music.

On March 29 Canadian-born soprano Kyla Lingley will return from her current home in England. Kyla is known as one of the most charismatic emerging artists on today's classical music scene with a repertoire that ranges from classical to pop to the greatest hits of the Broadway.

"I heard Kyla perform at Harbour Station and thought what an amazing performer she would be, particularly in a more intimate setting such as the BMO Studio," adds Stephen Tobias, SJTC Executive Director. "After finally getting the chance to meet with her, and learn more about her career and work, I was convinced that she would be an incredible fit for our music series."

Local talent will take the stage on March 30 for an evening of smooth jazz. Musicians Greg Marks (Saxophone), Peter Kindred (Bass), Jonathan Kipping (Drums) & Richard Kidd (Piano) form the much-loved Richard Kidd Jazz Combo and are eager to fill the room with some beautiful live jazz music.

Kyla Lingley will perform on March 29 at 8pm, 112 Princess St. Tickets for Kyla Lingley are $30 and can be purchased at www.ticketpro.ca or by calling 1-888-311-9090. The Richard Kidd Jazz Combo will perform on March 30 at 8pm, 112 Princess St. Tickets for Richard Kidd are $25 and can be purchased at www.ticketpro.ca or by calling 1-888-311-9090.

Funding for the Live @ The BMO Music Series has been generously provided by Canadian Heritage, the Province of New Brunswick and BMO Financial.